

Suncoast Information Specialists
Meeting Minutes
Saturday, June 11, 2011

The "Saturday South of the Skyway" Meeting was held at Mattison's Riverside Restaurant, Twin Dolphin Marina, in Bradenton, FL. the meeting began at 11:30 am with networking and lunch, followed by the business meeting and program.

President's Report

- A greeting by Hal was followed by a round of introductions.
- The next SIS meeting: Wed. Aug 17th, John Germany Library in Tampa.

Treasurer's Report

- $1,119 balance
- Three outstanding checks for student grants
- Bank Atlantic has been sold to PNC, so our bank account will be changed. We don't know what affect, if any it will have.
-
- Betsy is making a directory of all members.
- We currently have ninety-one members.

Announcements:

- Caroline Reed – There are two openings at New College. One is emerging tech. librarian and the other is for an instructional librarian with an emphasis in the sciences. Both are visiting positions. See: www.ncf.edu
- Arlen Bensen – Arlen's daughter was involved with the color Nook commercial. Congratulations, Arlen!
- Caroline Reed – New College Bancroft Library will host an exhibit on Nazi book burning starting February 7, 2012. More details will be forthcoming

Vice President's Report

Barbara Introduced Matt Woodside from the South Florida Museum. Matt is the Director of Collections and Exhibitions. Matt provided us with a history of the museum. We then adjourned, and headed over to the museum for a tour.

Submitted by Robert Brammer, Secretary